

LATIN AMERICAN TRANSFORM LEADERSHIP SUMMIT
25-29 AUGUST 2009
ARGENTINA

COICOM, the Latin American confederation of Pastors, Christian Leaders and Communicators, will be holding its 18th international conference in Mar del Plata, Argentina from the 25th to the 29th of August. Christian Media and Church leaders from over 20 countries of the Spanish-speaking world will be attending this strategic summit.

The Conference will feature 100 Workshops and Sessions and Consultations regarding evangelism and transformation. According to COICOM's President Arnold Enns, this year's presentation has much expectations. "We will be hosting representatives from every major missions movement and organisation to come together to plan strategically towards working together in spreading the Gospel and plan strategies in seeing our nations transformed".

COICOM draws in organisations such as Lausanne (Cape Town 2010), CONELA (Latin American Evangelical Alliance); COMIBAM (IberoAmerican Missions Co-operation); Transform Latin America and many Mission Organisations. More information on www.coicom.com or write to info@coicom.com
