My Brother's and Sister's Keeper

“Disciple or Die”

Bali, Indonesia

October 17-20th, 2016

There are 1.1 billion youth between 15-24 years or constitutes 18% of world population. Along with those from 4-14 years, the number constitutes nearly 40% of world population. Approximately 60% of that age group lives in Asia, 15% in Africa and 10% in Latin America. More than 85% youth live in developing countries. Nearly half of those (45.9 percent) live in low-income countries, while another third (34.1 percent) live in lower middle-income countries.

This swell in the global population of young people has the potential to transform economies for better or worse, depending on the decisions of today's policy makers, according to a new United Nations report. It is a potential for economic and social progress but also have the potential to destabilize nations. Recent history shows that country with 30% youth population is likely experience major social unrest.

Youth shapes the future of a nation, the world and without exception the church. They are likely more willing, able, commit to a cause and ready to take the risk. When given trust, opportunity, and equipped will carry out and complete the tasks. The church can't afford to lose their youth if it is to be true to its calling, to transform the world. Many countries in Asia experience the truth that focusing on youth will result in phenomenal.

A global youth discipleship should become a priority in global mission if the church to regain growth and sustain its promising future. Asia Pacific Youth Congress was launched to build up momentum of global disciple making movement among youth. Youth to reach the next generations to be their brother's and sister's keeper, walk along side of them. This is to better accomplishing the vision of reaching, rescuing, rooting and releasing the most receptive age group to the Gospel, 4-14 years, known as 4/14 Window Global Movement. (www.info414window.org)

The theme of the Congress is Disciple or Die. Without discipleship, the next generation will drift away from the church and the church will die.

The first Asia Pacific Youth Congress, April 2015, as the launching of the Second Mountain vision of the 4/14 Window Movement held in Bali. The message of the Congress was well received and responded. The vision spreads and resonates across the globe in dozens of countries in all Regions represented. Youth began to be their Brother's and Sister's keepers; reaching and disciple them in churches, schools, work places and other public arenas. Further equipping of youth disciple maker leads to the launching of Asia Pacific Youth Congress II.

The Purpose

To inspire and ignite global youth disciple making movement.

Goal

1,300 Young leaders in the Asia Pacific Region become key stakeholders in a global holistic discipleship making movement.

Objectives:

1,300 or more inter-generational leaders and youth are equipped with best practices of discipleship know how.

Promising future leaders emerged, identified and incorporated into the national, regional and global structures of leadership.

Connections, collaborations and networks at national, regional and global levels for holistic discipleship movement emerge and continue to make global impact through the next generation.

Though the Congress is named as Asia Pacific and will be in Asia it is inviting youth, young and season leaders from other regions, to taste and be inspired with the holistic discipleship movement. They are to be envisioned, equipped and empowered to engage in holistic disciple making mission of reaching this and the next generation.
