

Belief in Forever Truth

They told the apostles what had happened, but the story sounded like nonsense, so they didn't believe it. However, Peter ran to the tomb to look. Stooping, he peered in and saw the empty linen wrappings; then he went home again, wondering what had happened.

Luke 24:10b-12 (NLT)

Prayer Focus: The tomb is empty, Jesus' body is missing, and two angels in dazzling robes suddenly appear with the message: He is risen from the dead! As the women rushed back to tell the disciples about Jesus' resurrection, it sounded like nonsense. All of Jesus' followers were grief-stricken, confused, and most likely unsure about what to do next. Everything they thought they knew about Jesus had been radically changed—and now their lives were in upheaval. So it was difficult to receive yet another twist to an already dramatic story. But Peter and others still ran to check it out for themselves. Yes, the tomb was empty as the women had said. But they were mystified because, in the midst of their panic and uncertainty, they did not remember Jesus' promise. He said He would rise again; He had prepared them for this day. But they did not immediately recognize Him as the risen Savior. We must recognize and cling to the truth that Jesus is indeed risen. No attacks against this truth from so-called "scholars" can deter true believers. It may be nonsense to the world, but it is the absolute, forever truth!

Day 1: Worship Jesus as the risen Savior of the world!

Day 2: Confess to the Lord the times you have wondered if all of this can really be true.

Day 3: Repent of any unbelief, and commit to believe Jesus for His promise regardless of the world's ridicule.

Day 4: Pray that you will grow in your confidence of the truth that Jesus lives and reigns as Savior.

Day 5: Invite Jesus to demonstrate Himself to you in ways that fill you with hope and belief.

Day 6: Pray that your church will boldly proclaim the truth of Jesus, as well as equip believers to stand firm.

Day 7: Pray that the truth of Jesus will be honored in your city.

Taken from the book "Come, Lord Jesus: transformation prayer guide"

Published by Prayer Transformation Ministry, Minneapolis

Jesus Christ as Our Saviour

It's all about Jesus! How often have you given intellectual assent to that truth? But do you live with the assurance and passion in your heart that Jesus is truly the only way, the only truth, and the only life? If you are not clear on this, you will soon be facing confusing and fearful times in a world that shakes with uncertainty.

Jesus made the declaration Himself in John 14:6: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me." Jesus does not acquiesce to popular opinion, tolerance, or political correctness. He does not make exceptions for those who might be sincere yet believe in another god. He makes no allowance for truth to be relative to culture. He does not ask us to package Him in such a way that unbelievers can accept a watered-down version of His Lordship. It's Jesus as He is—Savior of the world. Take Him or leave Him, but don't try to redefine Him.

The most powerful prayer in all of Scripture is the prayer that Jesus Himself offered in John 17. In part, He prayed: "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. For you have given him authority over everyone in all the earth. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth" (vs. 1-3, NLT).

Everyone on earth comes under the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ. So whether you believe in Him or not does not change His power, place, and position as your only hope for a Savior. It is only through Jesus' death on the cross and resurrection to life that we have any hope at all. Your eternal life depends on your belief in and obedience to Jesus: "And all who believe in God's Son have eternal life. Those who don't obey the Son will never experience eternal life, but the wrath of God remains upon them" (John 3:36).

As you encounter the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior in this next section, you will be confronted with the truth: It's all about Jesus! Repent and believe, which means truly repent and turn from sin, believing that Jesus is your only hope for salvation from the eternal wrath of God!

It is not about simply "praying a prayer," although prayer is the means of calling out to Jesus for His grace. It is about a true heart change and surrender of your life to Jesus Christ. Don't be counted among the many who will one day regret the reality of John 16:9: "The world's sin is unbelief in me." Now is the time to repent and believe!

Transformation: Jesus in Our Midst

As we pray about transformation; we need a common definition of what a truly transformed community might look like:

A transformed community is:

- A neighborhood, city, or nation whose values and institutions have been overrun by the grace and presence of God.
- A place where divine fire has not merely been summoned, but has fallen.
- A society in which natural change has been disrupted by invasive supernatural power.
- A culture that has been impacted comprehensively and undeniably by the Kingdom of God.
- A location where Kingdom values are celebrated publicly and passed on to future generations.

Community transformation is indicated when:

- Political leaders publicly acknowledge their sin and dependence on God. (2 Kings 11:17-18; 23:1-3; Jonah 3:6-9).
- New laws, curricula, and business practices are put into effect (2 Chronicles 19:4-10; Nehemiah 10:31).
- The natural environment is restored to its original life-nurturing state (Leviticus 26:4-5; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Ezekiel 34:27-31).
- Economic conditions improve and lead to a discernible lessening of poverty. (2 Chronicles 17:3-5; Psalm 144:13-14; Isaiah 60:5-7; Amos 9:13).
- There is a marked change in social entertainment and vices as Kingdom values are integrated into the rhythm of daily life (Ezra 10:1-4; Nehemiah 8:10, 16-17; Acts 19:17-20).
- Crime and corruption diminish throughout the community
- (2 Kings 12:13-15; Nehemiah 5:6-12; Isaiah 60:17-18).
- Volunteerism increases as Christians recognize their responsibility to heal and undergird the community (Isaiah 58:10-12; 61:1-4).
- Restored hope and joy leads to a decline in divorce, bankruptcy, and suicide (Nehemiah 12:27-28, 43; Isaiah 54:11-14; 61:3-7; Jeremiah 30:17-19; 31:11-13; Hosea 2:15).
- The spiritual nature of the growing socio-political renewal becomes a hot topic in secular media (2 Chronicles 20:29; Nehemiah 6:16; Isaiah 55:5; Ezekiel 36:36; Acts 19:17).
- Overwhelmed by the goodness of God, grateful Christians take the embers of revival into surrounding communities and nations (2 Chronicles 17:9; Isaiah 61:6; Acts 11:20-26).

(Source: The Sentinel Group)

About Prayer Transformation Ministries

This prayer guide is written and published by Prayer Transformation Ministries, a ministry located in Minneapolis/St. Paul, MN. Since 1993, Prayer Transformation Ministries (PTM) has worked with the prayer movement in the Twin Cities, the state of Minnesota, and the nation.

Prayer Transformation Ministries provides Christ-centered awareness, training, and equipping for personal and societal transformation.

About the Authors:

Steve Loopstra is the executive director of Prayer Transformation Ministries. He is also a member of the National Prayer Committee and serves on the Board of the National Church Prayer Leaders Network.

Steve's heart for prayer was demonstrated during his 20 years of pastoring prior to joining the PTM staff. He is a great encourager of pastors to develop "cultures of prayer" in their congregations. Steve also teaches and writes on prayer for revival and transformation. He and his wife Marilou have two children.

Carol Madison is the associate director of Prayer Transformation Ministries. She served in Christian publishing for 17 years before joining the PTM staff. Her experiences include editing a denominational magazine and creating a unique magazine designed to reach the unchurched. Carol writes and speaks on a variety of prayer topics, including the hope for revival and transformation. Her heart is to encourage believers to contend in prayer for their communities. She is a member of the National Prayer Committee.

Prayer Transformation Ministries serves by:

- Teaching/writing on principles of revival and transformation.
- Encouraging local churches to develop "cultures of prayer."
- Publishing prayer guides devoted to united prayer.
- Networking intercessors and prayer movements.
- Giving leadership to citywide catalytic prayer events.
- Producing Call to Prayer radio spots.
- Encouraging a children's prayer movement.
- Training and networking local church prayer leaders.

Website: www.prayertransformation.com