

Believe for Yourself

Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, "He told me everything I ever did!" When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay at their village. So he stayed for two days, long enough for many of them to hear his message and believe. Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe because we have heard him ourselves, not just because of what you told us.

He is indeed the Savior of the world."

John 4:39-40 (NLT)

Prayer Focus: The Samaritan woman had a dramatic and unexpected encounter with Jesus. Not only did He break cultural protocol by talking to her, He knew everything about her life. When Jesus proclaimed that He was the Messiah, it was confirmed in her heart through His demonstration of divine knowledge. He offered her new life, and she gladly received it. Not only did she take it in personally, but she left immediately to tell others about Jesus. Upon her testimony, the entire town received Jesus into their midst and eagerly listened to His message. Eventually the woman's story of belief became their own stories of belief. They experienced Jesus in a powerful and personal way, and they were convinced that He was indeed their Savior as well. Each of us must also have our own personal encounter with Jesus Christ that changes us dramatically forever. If you have not, Jesus is waiting to meet you!

Day 1: Worship Jesus as your personal and loving Savior.

Day 2: Confess the times you have heard about Jesus, but have not sought Him on a personal level.

Day 3: Repent of ways that your belief in Jesus has been intellectual, but not necessarily deep within your heart.

Day 4: Invite Jesus to reign in your life as your personal Savior who knows all things about you—and still loves you!

Day 5: Pray that your family and friends will each have a dramatic and personal encounter with Jesus Christ.

Day 6: Pray that your church will be a place where Jesus is known and experienced in personal ways.

Day 7: Pray that the lost in your community will have opportunity to hear and embrace the truth of Jesus.

Taken from the book "Come, Lord Jesus: transformation prayer guide"

Published by Prayer Transformation Ministry, Minneapolis

Jesus Christ as Our Savior

It's all about Jesus! How often have you given intellectual assent to that truth? But do you live with the assurance and passion in your heart that Jesus is truly the only way, the only truth, and the only life? If you are not clear on this, you will soon be facing confusing and fearful times in a world that shakes with uncertainty.

Jesus made the declaration Himself in John 14:6: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me." Jesus does not acquiesce to popular opinion, tolerance, or political correctness. He does not make exceptions for those who might be sincere yet believe in another god. He makes no allowance for truth to be relative to culture. He does not ask us to package Him in such a way that unbelievers can accept a watered-down version of His Lordship. It's Jesus as He is—Savior of the world. Take Him or leave Him, but don't try to redefine Him.

The most powerful prayer in all of Scripture is the prayer that Jesus Himself offered in John 17. In part, He prayed: "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. For you have given him authority over everyone in all the earth. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth" (vs. 1-3, NLT).

Everyone on earth comes under the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ. So whether you believe in Him or not does not change His power, place, and position as your only hope for a Savior. It is only through Jesus' death on the cross and resurrection to life that we have any hope at all. Your eternal life depends on your belief in and obedience to Jesus: "And all who believe in God's Son have eternal life. Those who don't obey the Son will never experience eternal life, but the wrath of God remains upon them" (John 3:36).

As you encounter the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior in this next section, you will be confronted with the truth: It's all about Jesus! Repent and believe, which means truly repent and turn from sin, believing that Jesus is your only hope for salvation from the eternal wrath of God!

It is not about simply "praying a prayer," although prayer is the means of calling out to Jesus for His grace. It is about a true heart change and surrender of your life to Jesus Christ. Don't be counted among the many who will one day regret the reality of John 16:9: "The world's sin is unbelief in me." Now is the time to repent and believe!

Transformation: Jesus in Our Midst

As we pray about transformation; we need a common definition of what a truly transformed community might look like:

A transformed community is:

- A neighbourhood, city, or nation whose values and institutions have been overrun by the grace and presence of God.
- A place where divine fire has not merely been summoned, but has fallen.
- A society in which natural change has been disrupted by invasive supernatural power.
- A culture that has been impacted comprehensively and undeniably by the Kingdom of God.
- A location where Kingdom values are celebrated publicly and passed on to future generations.

Community transformation is indicated when:

- Political leaders publicly acknowledge their sin and dependence on God. (2 Kings 11:17-18; 23:1-3; Jonah 3:6-9).
- New laws, curricula, and business practices are put into effect (2 Chronicles 19:4-10; Nehemiah 10:31).
- The natural environment is restored to its original life-nurturing state (Leviticus 26:4-5; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Ezekiel 34:27-31).
- Economic conditions improve and lead to a discernible lessening of poverty. (2 Chronicles 17:3-5; Psalm 144:13-14; Isaiah 60:5-7; Amos 9:13).
- There is a marked change in social entertainment and vices as Kingdom values are integrated into the rhythm of daily life (Ezra 10:1-4; Nehemiah 8:10, 16-17; Acts 19:17-20).
- Crime and corruption diminish throughout the community
- (2 Kings 12:13-15; Nehemiah 5:6-12; Isaiah 60:17-18).
- Volunteerism increases as Christians recognize their responsibility to heal and undergird the community (Isaiah 58:10-12; 61:1-4).
- Restored hope and joy leads to a decline in divorce, bankruptcy, and suicide (Nehemiah 12:27-28, 43; Isaiah 54:11-14; 61:3-7; Jeremiah 30:17-19; 31:11-13; Hosea 2:15).
- The spiritual nature of the growing socio-political renewal becomes a hot topic in secular media (2 Chronicles 20:29; Nehemiah 6:16; Isaiah 55:5; Ezekiel 36:36; Acts 19:17).
- Overwhelmed by the goodness of God, grateful Christians take the embers of revival into surrounding communities and nations (2 Chronicles 17:9; Isaiah 61:6; Acts 11:20-26).

(Source: The Sentinel Group)

About Prayer Transformation Ministries

This prayer guide is written and published by Prayer Transformation Ministries, a ministry located in Minneapolis/St. Paul, MN. Since 1993, Prayer Transformation Ministries (PTM) has worked with the prayer movement in the Twin Cities, the state of Minnesota, and the nation.

Prayer Transformation Ministries provides Christ-centered awareness, training, and equipping for personal and societal transformation.

About the Authors:

Steve Loopstra is the executive director of Prayer Transformation Ministries. He is also a member of the National Prayer Committee and serves on the Board of the National Church Prayer Leaders Network.

Steve's heart for prayer was demonstrated during his 20 years of pastoring prior to joining the PTM staff. He is a great encourager of pastors to develop "cultures of prayer" in their congregations. Steve also teaches and writes on prayer for revival and transformation. He and his wife Marilou have two children.

Carol Madison is the associate director of Prayer Transformation Ministries. She served in Christian publishing for 17 years before joining the PTM staff. Her experiences include editing a denominational magazine and creating a unique magazine designed to reach the unchurched. Carol writes and speaks on a variety of prayer topics, including the hope for revival and transformation. Her heart is to encourage believers to contend in prayer for their communities. She is a member of the National Prayer Committee.

Prayer Transformation Ministries serves by:

- Teaching/writing on principles of revival and transformation.
- Encouraging local churches to develop "cultures of prayer."
- Publishing prayer guides devoted to united prayer.
- Networking intercessors and prayer movements.
- Giving leadership to citywide catalytic prayer events.
- Producing Call to Prayer radio spots.
- Encouraging a children's prayer movement.
- Training and networking local church prayer leaders.

Website: www.prayertransformation.com