

Global Transformation Network's updates

Singapore Transformation Expanding.

Mark Beliles was able to speak at a conference of over 2000 leaders in Singapore in June, invited by a friend in the Transform World movement Juliette Arulrajah. Virtually all the major denominational leaders and church movements of the nation were there and heard Beliles speak about transformation of all the spheres of society.

GTN books are in print there in that nation and made available to many through the service of GTN facilitator Poh Lin Loh. Beliles also met with other GTN partners such as Gregory Vijayendran, who is president of the National Lawyers Association there. Also met again with Anglican Canon James Wong who first invited Beliles to Singapore years ago, and with Bishop Ephraim Tendero, president of the World Evangelical Alliance. Beliles preached in a Methodist Church also while there. Many encouraging things are happening in this strategic nation that is called by God as an "Antioch of Asia." See some pics below:
