Indonesia Transformation Movement

Dr. Mark Beliles, President of GTN, was able to visit Jakarta, Indonesia in December and sensed great blessing on the transformation movement there. Working closely with Rio and Iman, these key leaders in transformation movement there organized excellent training meetings and translated and published Christ's Strategy to Disciple Nations. We had in-depth training in comprehensive 5 signs of transformation: spiritual, intellectual, political, economical and physical. Leaders came from over 7 different islands of Indonesia. That nation is at a crucial moment with presidential elections coming up in April and the potential for the end of religious tolerance that was put in place by the founders of modern Indonesia when they adopted Pancasila in 1945. The former Christian governor of Jakarta was just released from prison after serving two years for false charges of blasphemy against him. Keep this nation in your prayers now.

Ukraine Transformation Movement

Meanwhile, in Europe a major movement has emerged there. Dr. Beliles was there in January and observed that the leaders of all the major denominations of Evangelical and Pentecostal churches have united for what they call Reformation Ukraine. A congressman named Pavel is the one bringing together all these leaders and they have developed a strategy for every sphere of influence. Beliles was invited to speak in the Parliament to leaders there and then in the conference that also included the President's chief of staff Oleksandr Turchynov (who was himself acting President of Ukraine during part of 2014). GTN director for Ukraine, Viktor Matveyev, is working with this group and helping to create many more training and connecting of leaders throughout the nation. Beliles is returning this next week. This nation's Christian leader are uniting especially because of the difficulties they face, with Russian troops still occupying portions of the east, and millions of the upper and middle classes having fled the country due to instability, their economic conditions are severe. They need our prayers as the church rises up to help lead in this critical time. See pics below of Beliles with congressmen, speaking in parliament, and at the major reformation summit including the former president and top Christian leaders of the nation.

Leaders From Many Nations Connecting Globally

For many years high level leaders in government, media, business, etc., who have worldviews contrary to Biblical ideas have gathered both through the United Nations or through the World Economic Forum at Davos, Switzerland and other places. Their agendas, financed by people like George Soros and others, empowers them for influencing the nations. Now, Christian leaders and others more in alignment with a Biblical worldview, morals and free economic principles are being connected together to help each other. We are excited to help in this process. If you are a high level leader in any of the 7 spheres in your nation (or you know of someone of that description), you could be invited to this connecting process. Just let us know by email and we will follow up on it.
