Hungary and Czechia Transformation Movements

Dr. Mark Beliles, President of GTN, was able to visit Prague and Budapest earlier this year (along with Ukraine a second time) and reports of exciting developments there. A group of about 500 leaders attended Beliles' seminar organized by St Paul Academy President Istvan Meszaros and other private meetings were held with our GTN leader there, political activist and businessman Istvan Szabadföldi. Met with John O'Sullivan of the Danube Institute and others working in Europe. More leaders and movements are connecting and Hungary is one of the leading nations today in Europe in standing up for Christian values and principles. See photo below of the seminar there.

Also Beliles spoke at a Transformation Conference in Prague, Czechia. Leaders from many spheres were gathered by GTN leader there pastor Stanislav Bubik. Beliles learned of initiatives in arts and media and in politics. A new partnership began with Senator Libor Michalek who is the foremost champion in that nation against corruption. But he needs our prayers to survive much opposition. Beliles is returning there July 7-8 for another transformation conference. See photos of the senator and conference below.

Keep Europe in your prayers. In this 500 anniversary of the Reformation, perhaps God will raise up a new generation of leaders to change the nations there.

Latin America Transformation Movement

Also in Latin America major unity is coming among transformation leaders in many nations. Mark Beliles was part of the Disciple Nations Alliance (DNA) global forum held in Panama. This movement is led by Darrow Miller and Bob Moffitt. See the group photo below. Most of the delegates there were from the Latin American nations and included some GTN representatives. Mark Beliles was privileged to speak and meet with great leaders. Truly DNA is one of the most effective movements out there today around the world especially in organizing training of leaders in the basics of a Biblical Worldview. Plus additional resources are available through online programs called Coram Deo.

Immediately after that summit, Beliles, along with Dennis Peacocke, also gathered some Christian political leaders from 11 nations in the region for unifying efforts in that sphere. An Executive Team was established and plans for working together throughout Latin America. Plus Beliles was invited to speak by the Senate of Colombia in a conference on justice. A great partner there with GTN is Senator Maria Fernanda Cabal and an activist and businessman Hector Ordonez. See her below with other senators and political party leaders. She is part of the ruling party in Colombia. Beliles was also a guest at her home when she hosted Congressman Bolsanaro from Brazil, son of the president in Brazil. God is doing great things in that region. Beliles will be in Brazil, Argentina and Chile in August and in Central America in September. Please keep praying for this part of the world. GTN Faciliattors there are Maria Irene Squilaci in Bolivia and Ron Diaz in Costa Rica and they are helping to connect many of these leaders.

Leaders From Many Nations Connecting Gobally

For many years high level leaders in government, media, business, etc, who have worldviews contrary to Biblical ideas have gathered both through the United Nations or through the World Economic Forum at Davos, Switzerland and other places. Their agendas, financed by people like George Soros and others, empowers them for influencing the nations. Now, Christian leaders and others more in alignment with a Biblical worldview, morals and free economic principles are being connected together to help each other. We are excited to help in this process. If you are a high level leader in any of the 7 spheres in your nation (or you know of someone of that description), you could be invited to this connecting process. Just let us know by email and we will follow up on it.

Join GTN Summit in cooperation with TransformWorld & Statesmen Project

This annual leadership summit is for all nations but especially is designed as a working conference for leaders from 3 global movements. The conference has four focus groups of prayer, worldview education, public policy, and community action councils where everything is practically applied. Various challenges are discussed and strategies developed through all the major 7 spheres of influence. Cost is $150/person for registration and two meals but lodging is done on your own at recommended hotels. Email us if you have questions. Or click below to register
