

Refreshing from the Savior

"Now turn from your sins and turn to God, so you can be cleansed of your sins. Then wonderful times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will send Jesus your Messiah to you again."

Acts 3:19-20 (NLT)

Prayer Focus: Salvation comes by repentance and a turning away from sin. But there is an added component to repentance: a wonderful time of refreshment from the Lord. Repentance invites the presence of the living, resurrected Lord Jesus Christ. In His presence, nothing can remain the same. When a true refreshing of the Lord comes through repentance, all hope is restored. Jesus offers freedom from fear and the bondage of sin. Relationships are healed and reconciled through repentance in the name of Jesus. Spiritually blind eyes are opened, deaf ears are unstopped. The cleansing that follows repentance allows believers in Christ to see and hear Him in all His compassion and grace. Doubt is replaced with confidence in the power of Christ. Those who have turned from their sins can expect an encounter with the living Lord Jesus that breathes new life into their souls. A truly repentant person no longer struggles through sin management, shame, or hiding. They have discovered that releasing everything to the forgiveness and refreshing of the Lord Jesus Christ allows them to fall humbly at the feet of Jesus—free at last! Only when we truly repent will we experience times of refreshing from His hand.

Day 1: Praise the Lord Jesus for the refreshing of repentance.

Day 2: Allow the Lord to examine your heart and speak a message of true repentance and hope into your life.

Day 3: Thank God that true freedom comes with repentance.

Day 4: Worship the Lord and express your gratefulness for His forgiveness of your sins. Invite a refreshing of your soul.

Day 5: Pray that those who confess to be believers in Christ will truly repent and be set free in all areas of their lives.

Day 6: Pray that your church will teach a clear message of freedom from shame through forgiveness of sin.

Day 7: Pray that the Lord will move powerfully in your city and bring many people to healing and restoring salvation.

Jesus Christ as our Savior

It's all about Jesus! How often have you given intellectual assent to that truth? But do you live with the assurance and passion in your heart that Jesus is truly the only way, the only truth, and the only life? If you are not clear on this, you will soon be facing confusing and fearful times in a world that shakes with uncertainty.

Jesus made the declaration Himself in John 14:6: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me." Jesus does not acquiesce to popular opinion, tolerance, or political correctness. He does not make exceptions for those who might be sincere yet believe in another god. He makes no allowance for truth to be relative to culture. He does not ask us to package Him in such a way that unbelievers can accept a watered-down version of His Lordship. It's Jesus as He is—Savior of the world. Take Him or leave Him, but don't try to redefine Him.

The most powerful prayer in all of Scripture is the prayer that Jesus Himself offered in John 17. In part, He prayed: "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. For you have given him authority over everyone in all the earth. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth" (vs. 1-3, NLT).

Everyone on earth comes under the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ. So whether you believe in Him or not does not change His power, place, and position as your only hope for a Savior. It is only through Jesus' death on the cross and resurrection to life that we have any hope at all. Your eternal life depends on your belief in and obedience to Jesus: "And all who believe in God's Son have eternal life. Those who don't obey the Son will never experience eternal life, but the wrath of God remains upon them" (John 3:36).

As you encounter the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior in this next section, you will be confronted with the truth: It's all about Jesus! Repent and believe, which means truly repent and turn from sin, believing that Jesus is your only hope for salvation from the eternal wrath of God!

It is not about simply "praying a prayer," although prayer is the means of calling out to Jesus for His grace. It is about a true heart change and surrender of your life to Jesus Christ. Don't be counted among the many who will one day regret the reality of John 16:9: "The world's Jesus Christ as Our Savior sin is unbelief in me." Now is the time to repent and believe!

Transformation: Jesus in Our Midst

As we pray about transformation; we need a common definition of what a truly transformed community might look like:

A transformed community is:

- A neighbourhood, city, or nation whose values and institutions have been overrun by the grace and presence of God.
- A place where divine fire has not merely been summoned, but has fallen.
- A society in which natural change has been disrupted by invasive supernatural power.
- A culture that has been impacted comprehensively and undeniably by the Kingdom of God.
- A location where Kingdom values are celebrated publicly and passed on to future generations.

Community transformation is indicated when:

- Political leaders publicly acknowledge their sin and dependence on God. (2 Kings 11:17-18; 23:1-3; Jonah 3:6-9)
- New laws, curricula, and business practices are put into effect. (2 Chronicles 19:4-10; Nehemiah 10:31)
- The natural environment is restored to its original life-nurturing state. (Leviticus 26:4-5; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Ezekiel 34:27-31)
- Economic conditions improve and lead to a discernible lessening of poverty. (2 Chronicles 17:3-5; Psalm 144:13-14; Isaiah 60:5-7; Amos 9:13)
- There is a marked change in social entertainment and vices as Kingdom values are integrated into the rhythm of daily life. (Ezra 10:1-4; Nehemiah 8:10, 16-17; Acts 19:17-20)
- Crime and corruption diminish throughout the community. (2 Kings 12:13-15; Nehemiah 5:6-12; Isaiah 60:17-18)
- Volunteerism increases as Christians recognize their responsibility to heal and undergird the community. (Isaiah 58:10-12; 61:1-4)
- Restored hope and joy leads to a decline in divorce, bankruptcy, and suicide. (Nehemiah 12:27-28, 43; Isaiah 54:11-14; 61:3-7; Jeremiah 30:17-19; 31:11-13; Hosea 2:15)
- The spiritual nature of the growing socio-political renewal becomes a hot topic in secular media. (2 Chronicles 20:29; Nehemiah 6:16; Isaiah 55:5; Ezekiel 36:36; Acts 19:17).
- Overwhelmed by the goodness of God, grateful Christians take the embers of revival into surrounding communities and nations. (2 Chronicles 17:9; Isaiah 61:6; Acts 11:20-26).
