EVENT BACKGROUND

- For many centuries the Christianity from the western hemisphere has influenced almost the entire world, but entering the 21st century countries in the East seems to have taken the button by running fast to catch up with the unfinished homework in these last days.
- The collaboration of the West and the East has brought up a tremendous tsunami of revival that has swept rapidly across the earth to fulfil the Great Commission (Matthew 24:14)
- IPA (International Prayer Assembly) that was held in 1984 in South Korea was a prayer movement that has inspired and motivated the arising of people in the world especially in Asia. The event which was attended by approximately 300 thousand people from 150 nations has given an awareness that a wave of spiritual awakening can occur when God's people pray together in unity (2 Chronicle 7:14).
- Since then the churches in South Korea have started sending more missionaries and became very active in the mission movement worldwide to this day.
- WPA 2012 (World Prayer Assembly) that was held in Indonesia was the largest Prayer movement in history which was attended by 9600 delegates from 86 countries in SICC Sentul City and the highlight of the event was the Momentum (a prayer celebration in unity at Gelora Bung Karno) on May 17, 2012 which was attended by 120,000 people of God who prayed and was carried out simultaneously in 378 cities throughout the country at the same time, it was estimated around 3-4 million people were directly involved.
- This momentum brought a spirit of togetherness and raises new awareness to have a compassionate heart for the city and the surrounding community in Indonesia also bring a New Wave of prayer in Indonesia even that New Wave is spread out from Indonesia to the nations.

VISION (GOALS)

- This momentum will unite worldwide and intergenerational prayer movements combined with mission movements to welcome the even greater glory of God which will bring billion souls into true salvation and the wave from the East to the West is a wave of the Holy Spirit that will sweep over the entire world.
- Your participation will become a history maker when you respond to the call of the Almighty God in these last days.
