

Transform San Cristobal

July 14-16, 2023

BACKGROUND

In celebration of the 200th Anniversary of San Cristobal, the churches of this suburb of Santo Domingo, the capital of Dominican Republic, are commemorating this historic juncture by uniting as churches for a city wide celebration of a future dream: Transform San Cristobal.

This city is the municipal capital of the San Cristobal province. The constitution of Dominican Republic was signed in San Cristobal in 1844. This city is also notable for being the birthplace of Rafael Trujillo, dictator from 1930-1961.

The population of the city of San Cristobal reaches 300,000 people.

Dominican Republic

The Spanish Island colony of Hispaniola was divided into two countries upon independence from Spain. Today five eighths of this island is the current country of the Dominican Republic, declaring its independence in 1821. The other island is Haiti, becoming independent in 1804.

At different moments in its history, the Dominican Republic was ruled or intervened by Haiti, Spain, and the United States.

The “colony” of Santo Domingo became the site of the first permanent European settlement in the Americas upon its “discovery” in 1492. It was also the first seat of Spanish colonial rule in the new world.

The Dominican Republic has a population of 10.7 million people. The capital of Santo Domingo has a population of 3.3 million. This island nation is a representative republic, with an upper (32 members) and lower (178 members) legislature. Luis Abinader is the current president.

The judicial authority rests with the 16-member Supreme Court of Justices. It is appointed by the National Council of the Magistracy; composed of the president, the leaders of both houses of Congress, the President of the Supreme Court, and an opposition party member.

The Dominican Republic has one of the fastest growing economies in Latin America and the Caribbean over the last decade. Real GDP grew by 4.9 percent in 2022, driven by services. The hotel, restaurant and tourism sector grew by 24 percent during this period.

Approximately 66% of Dominicans are Catholic. An additional 22% of them are Protestant.

The motto of this island nation is “God, Homeland, Freedom.”
